I've generally had good food here but I have two complaints that are consistent. 1) They put peppers in too many dishes. Most restaurants that serve food of this quality and work this much on atmosphere, don't feel the need to put peppers in everything. I draw the line at ahi poke and I didn't get the corn chowder because I'm pretty sure there were peppers in it. That's how you know it's in too many dishes and left m... read more.
