Amidst the coronavirus scare, we found ourselves at a fairly empty restaurant, but so grateful for the ones who were there to serve. The food was INCREDIBLE!! The pastries were divine. The brunch left my mouth watering. Also, the seats were ridiculously comfortable. And the aesthetic of the place was also so refreshing. We will be recommending friends visit this place ASAP. So grateful for everyone who worked that da... read more. What

User doesn't like about Permanently Closed Bon Temps:

Quality of service lower than quality of food. For example, our server was about to inform us about the menu and started a conversation with other employees a foot from our table. I ordered the delicious endive and persimmon salad, but it was big enough that four people share and he didn't tell us that. Wine Steward was helpful in a nice opportunity and we found some good values. Loved the design and open kitchen. read more.
