A very cozy hole in the wall, hidden in a bakery. Reservations required, and many outdoor seating available back. High-end adventurous cocktails are so incredibly tasteful and unique. Small plate menu includes rotating seasonal donuts, of which the place takes its name. Chartreuse tasting imported from a monastery are for those who are looking for something you definitely find nowhere else, a real treat for botanical... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Captain Gregory's:

Drinks were amazing and while expensive, worth it! Unfortunately, everyone in our group of four left in a bad mood due to a rude server. Being a tourist and excited for this experience, I was recording the opening of the door and (As another review mentioned) the hostess expressed her irritation at being filmed. Totally understandable, but if this is a common thing, please put up a large sign or send a warning in rese... read more. In case you're craving some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: exquisite meals, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse selection of beers from the region and the whole world. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
