Amazing Vietnamese restaurant in Chinatown New York City. Also has a location in Jackson Heights Queens. I have been to Saigon, myself, and this place is authentic and in an excellent location and service has always been excellent. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Thái Sơn:

Consistently decent Vietnamese food in the area. Can get busy at times which is great for them, but the wait isn't too long usually. Service is prompt and helpful. Favorites are the grilled pork chop, bo luc lac (beef cubes), and the beef wrapped in grape leaves. Also love their spring rolls cause I think they use rice paper so it's got some extra texture to it. The pho is always satisfying. Nothing like a hot bowl o... read more. A visit to Thái Sơn becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties. In addition, numerous guests look forward to enjoying traditional Vietnamese dishes with the perfect hint of Southeast Asian flavor during a visit at the Thái Sơn.
