Been wanting to try this place for a while, did not disappoint!! I got the Chicken Shawarma but only upset is i wish they had Lamb/Mutton Shawarmas. However, these reminded me of the times I ate some in Europe! Lady at the counter was very nice and so were the other staff members. Love this place and will come again to try other foods! The price for the food is way too expensive, this restaurant used to be very good food, decent portions, decently priced. Now post pandemic and inflation has made the portions mediocre and very expensive. In the restaurant they had a sign stating that they had to increase the price because of the pandemic (i'd say maybe $5 or more) which I would've been okay with if they had not severely cut the portions, it's serious...
