Everything was really fresh, but I went near the end of dinner rush, so that could easily be why. My wife and I loved the meals we got. We got fried rice, Mongolian Chicken, Orange Chicken, Bourbon Chicken and pot stickers. Not too greasy, not over cooked or over cooked. Whomever was running that shift on August 26th, knows exactly what they are doing. Best Leeann Chin experience and food I have ever had. Bonus, saw th... read more. What User doesn't like about Leeann Chin:

When it's good, it's real good. When it's not, it's real bad. Inconsistency is the reason I don't eat here much anymore. I wish the delicious bourbon chicken were always tender and without the chewy bits, but it's not consistent. The orange chicken is sometimes too mushy too. The cream cheese wontons are tasty when fresh, but they leave them out for long enough, if nobody buys them, that the wontons can get pretty gross... read more.
