The Menu of Garlic Crush from Seattle includes about 16 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $10.3. What Chris I likes about Garlic Crush:

Food: 5Service: 4Ambiance: 4Garlic Crush is inconsistent, but when it's good, it's great. If the garlic fries were cheaper, I would get them every week; they are to die for. I've had their gyros, shawarma, and plates. They're not the best that I've had, but it's hard to argue with. The prices are expensive and despite there being better alternatives, Garlic Crush is a nice treat if you're in the area and craving Medi... read more. What Derrick doesn't like about Garlic Crush:

Never paid so much for such a meh salad. The gyro salad came out to $18.80. The portion size was surprisingly small, and most of it was iceberg lettuce. Plenty of better places to eat around that price point. read more.
