Abba stands above. Everything we ordered was creatively prepared and cooked perfectly. The service was attentive yet not overbearing. Despite the quality of the restaurant, dress is casual. The wine list is well selected.

For sure, there are less expensive places in the area that serve humongous portions of mediocre food, and if that's what you value, then Abba is not for you. But if you want a memorable and satisfy... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside.
