We were happy with our little booth, our waiter and the food was excellent. We both had our favorite meals, the manacotti and ravioli, and your wonderful salads. It was a special birthday dinner for my husband's 82nd birthday. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Little Venice:

The waitress seemed like she was in a huge hurry to take our orders when the restaurant was virtually empty. My grandmother had a question about beer on tap and she was very impatient and rude. Also the food seems to be declining in quality. I ordered the grilled chicken salad and there was a piece of cold chicken with two tomato pieces and two tiny dried up peppers. Over priced. Also you have stopped giving soup or... read more.
