The menu is hard to read and understand. In the drive thru, writing is too small to really see. If you've never been here before, you don't know what they have that aren't listed. Hot and cold drinks and sizes are not properly listed. They had a photo of a sandwich on the side of the building that was not listed on the menu, but we had the order that we knew it. So overall no great experience for someone who doesn't... read more. What User doesn't like about Dunn Brothers Coffee:

I have decided to give you another attempt, as it has been past Lexington's place for about 5 years, because my beverage order is never correct. Well, it happened again my white chocolate mocha tastes like espresso and milk with absolutely no white chocolate in it. I'm not gonna be back and wasting almost $8 for a drink. It was disgusting that I threw it away. read more.
