from the moment we went to bobby, greeted us with a big smile, our server jessica went over and beyond. everyone who worked stepped in to help each other with a smile on the face, even if it wasn't her table. I say you're just as good as your leader and judgeard is also brilliant. he smiled all the time and made sure everyone was happy. many thanks for such a great experience. we will definitely come back. doesn't like about Longhorn Steakhouse:

the service was good and my nativity was great. the others in my party had some problems with their eating. potatoes with maish were cold and steak was not cooked to order. for the price of the courts they would think that the kitchen staff would raise a little more to ensure that what they send out is acceptable.
