Went here for the first day of Mardi Gras season and will definitely be back. Got a great taste of New Orleans as well as the great vibe Noda has in general. I wish we were able to get a cat 5 and walk to see live music though.

That would make it a full experience. read more. What User doesn't like about Boudreaux's Louisiana Kitchen:

All right. I was here a few years ago and remember that it was much better. Yesterday evening here and it was without any personal or atmosphere. the tables were placed far apart, many without chairs. our waiter didn't want to be there and was pretty rough around the edges. the only redeeming quality is that eating was still decent, but we will not return soon.
