While many patrons praise its flavorful falafel, fresh salads, and consistently hearty Shawarma sandwiches, others lament a decline in both food quality and service. Complaints of rude staff interactions, notably concerning missing items and unpleasant dining experiences, have deterred some diners. Despite these setbacks, loyal customers appreciate the quick service and reasonable prices. Ultimately, My Girl Bar showcases potential with its beloved dishes, but it faces challenges that the owner must address to regain its former glory and maintain a welcoming atmosphere for all.
