The food is always delicious, never a fat piece of chicken or a tasty food. The only problem is the prices. If you order on your website, make sure to present your receipt before placing your order as you cannot see it. You will tell you in the store that its more expensive than what the online order has told you. The taste and quality makes up for this discrepancy, be careful and keep records. read more. What Melina M doesn't like about Swan Crepe:

Charged me over 3 times the amount I was supposed to pay 2 days later from being there since they had my card on file and won't return it so I have to dispute it. Do with that what you will. Extremely unprofessional business. Will definitely never go back read more.
