This is my second time having Mexican food while visiting TX and I gotta say I think im planning on moving here just for this place! I don't even care about getting fat this is worth it! If you are on the fence about it just go! read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about El Cocinero Cafe And Cantina:
We waited 20 minutes for our drinks. We ordered queso when we ordered our drinks, it was brought out but didn't get chips. Finally got chips but never hot sauce. Food was ok but service sucks. Not once did she check on us or refill our drinks...It's not a place I recommend read more.
