It was dead, but it was also rainy and a Tuesday. We didn 't expect much, but were pleasantly surprised. It was incredibly friendly for babies/families, which is important to us now. We got there early and there was only one or two other tables the entire time we were there.The server was a little strange, definitely not the A level staff, but that 's okay. All the food was really good. The 'bread service ' is served... read more.
