(FYI we are from out of town so we are a true 3rd party review, not ranking it because it's the best in town) My wife and I walked in at about 5:30 pm on a Wednesday night. We sat at the bar and we were customer #4 and 5.

It took about ten minutes before the four people working acknowledged us. We ordered two drinks and two appetizers. I got a whisky style drink and it was terrible. My wife got a tequila drink and hers was lousy as well. The appetizers were good. We got a pizza and Brie cheese dish. The service continued to be terrible and we did not order another drink. If the drinks were good the prices would have been fair. They definitely did not have a mixologist create these drinks. We would not waste our time going there again.
