we've been in town a few times. josh is in serious the best, no matter when or day or how busy it is. he is always there (more than any person I have seen here in the run of the years) and deserves a major raise for his hard work! I would have written months ago, but we found his name tonight. many times in the past it seems as if the person behind the theke is overwhelmed with the amount of people who need service....
