I love this place! the only sushi place I go to santa barbara, as it is cheaper than the other places, but that doesn't mean that the quality goes with it. they take a bit to bring food, but this is because its still a high quality restaurant that takes time to prepare their food. I like the Wharf atmosphere and my sushi always comes fresh and tasty. the perfect hole in the wall to go. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What

User doesn't like about Sushi Go Go:

I haven't been here since the summer of 2018 and remember it being better than it was today. Unfortunately the California roll wasn't made well and fell apart as soon as I picked up a piece. They didn't allow the rice to cool it seemed. The slices of fish for the nigiri were much too thick and as such, difficult to eat. Wasn't a fan of the salmon. They're not very friendly when customers order but the location is ide... read more. Traditional dishes are prepared in the kitchen of Sushi Go Go in Santa Barbara with original Asian spices scrumptious, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes on the menu. But the undisputed highlight of this restaurant is the delightful Sushi such as Maki and Sashimi, Besides, the successful blend of different meals with new and partially adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion.
