I have been eating here for years and imo is the best Chinese in bloomington. I'm a little concerned. I ordered general tso's huh a few days ago and it looked out, and tasted how there were chickening bugs in it. their normal chicken pieces were in there, but there were unmistakable nuggets (see picture.) I hope that doesn't go any further because there was a noticeable drop taste. we'll check back. read more. What User doesn't like about

Peach Garden:

all in the picture was $85. everything was quite standard American Chinese food. I thought the vultures were so good, but except that nothing was stellar. the general tso had not much sauce, the pfeffer huhn had not much huh and was not that spicy, the secretly boiled noodles were quite bland and the pouring teig was very thick. the lo my and the fried rice were good, but there was something missing in the taste. I w... read more. In case you're craving some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delightful menus, prepared with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American menus like Burger or Barbecue. Even the versatile, scrumptious Chinese cuisine is very popular among guests.
