Cucumber salad they give you when you sit is really good. Would definitely recommend the sashimi. The sampler was tasty and would order it again. The eel roll wasn't all that great, it tasted a little flavorless, so I wouldn't order that again necessarily. It also fell apart very easily, making it difficult to eat. The roll that was equivalent to a California roll was very, very good. Pineapple... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What Ashley Johnson doesn't like about Sushi Yama:

The Volcano Roll came out greasy and not good. When we complained to the manager, he was very RUDE and told us that if we sent it back it had to come out of the waitresses check! Why would you put your customers and workers in this type of situation? I'll never eat here again and recommend you don't either!! Food: 1/5 read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Sushi Yama from Baton Rouge, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, Delicious particularly are the Sushi and delicacies like Te-Maki that this restaurant is known for. A lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat is used in the easily digestible Japanese cuisine of Sushi Yama, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian meals.
