I called in my order and it seems like I command horchata every time they don't have. I don't know it might be on her menu. I went to pick up my order standing there waiting, the host was in the corner standing on a table talking on his phone and while still on the phone went in the back to go bag, my order was still on his phone when he came back to the hostage and was still on his phone as to talk on him. that is n...
