User likes about Final Final:

We can not say enough good things about Final Final and the people running it. This place is crawling with charm and has the warm welcoming feeling you get from any good family-owned and operated sports bar. They make you feel at home and like you are one of their own whether it is your first time there or on of their regulars (they seem to have plenty). We will be returning anytime we are in the area and hope this p... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities.

What User doesn't like about Final Final:

I've been here a few times and always had good service and well presented pints. Not this evening though. Quite possibly the worst Guinness I've ever tasted, served by a surely barman more interested in talking to his friends than serving paying customers. Can't say I'll be back anytime soon. In addition, you can order fresh grilled barbecue. Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
