would have wanted actual menus to look by phone, take much longer to do and not user-friendly if between several menu tabs go on the phone to compare the dinge also no desert menu online, so I had to ask. I would probably have ordered more food if I had the complete menu in front of me, especially if children try to decide would have been nice with real menus. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Hiro 88 South Lincoln:

very disappointing experience. first it took 15 minutes until our server arrived and welcomed our table. Secondly, we had to get our own menus and water. Thirdly, the service manager was less than accommodating. one of my worst experiences with service in a long time. I hope that the gm will address this and trains his staff and manager to help the guests in time. read more.
