we decided to eat something too late here as we were in the hotel on the other side of the street and just came to the city. eating was good, but service was great! andres (I think he's manager) was an absolute joy to walk us tassen for our left drinks, make local recommendations and even throw into a little tasty as we mentioned that we were in the city for the birthday of my friend. I didn't get the names of our se... read more. What User doesn't like about Chili's Grill:

they sat fast, they had no soda machine, but they worked on it. waitstaff was okay. I had to defeat our waitress with a refill for me and the drinks of my father-in-law. also waitress never stopped by to see if we had to go boxing after I had marked it a second time and I had to get it myself from the bar when I saw a stack there.
