Heidi H likes about Ginger Court:

I love the food. I wanted Chinese food but didn't want our usual place. We did take out and had the spring rolls, Honey boneless barbecue ribs, pork lo mein, beef and vegetables, general gao. The fried foods were good and not greasy. The grease was clean because nothing tasted like something else. The lo mein was good as well.

The ribs had a nice slightly sweet char which is what I like with boneless ribs. Both the gaos a... read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its customers, and into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Ginger Court:

an unfriendly. every time I approached the male staff in the register, he would turn away or watch the television behind him. he didn't tell me a word. really unprofessional and terrible work ethic. that was my second time here, the bad service. that was okay. my food came in this bag and my vegetable meat came in this box. for the price increase on their food, I certainly expect more. I will not return here again an... read more. In Acton, traditional courses are prepared in the kitchen of Ginger Court with original Asian spices fine. Here, the barbecued food is freshly prepared on an open flame. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Ginger Court. Anyone
