Quaint little place located in downtown Fayetteville. I was skeptical when it was suggested, but I was very surprised. Amazing geek food at a decent price. This will be added to my list of places to go regularly. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Mohamed Runte doesn't like about Agora Mediterranean:

Our first visit to Agora was satisfactory. We had the regular gyros with rice and the chicken gyros. The gyros were huge with lots of meat. I would have liked the regular gyros meat to have been sliced thinner. My wife had the chicken and thought it was over salted. With only one server, the service was a bit slow. Otherwise, the lunch was fine. read more. You can at Agora Mediterranean from Fayetteville try delicious vegetarian meals, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, visitors often choose the delicious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dipping into the own hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine. They also offer light Mediterranean menus on the menu, and the visitors of the establishment are thrilled with the Greek delicacies.
