a small American restaurant loaded with patriotic decor. the service was fast and short. I have a little reserved, but I have only tormented that I dine during a slow weekday when it is most native. since I've been in town anyway. I'm back in a definitiw. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about H B's Place:

Eating was okay and the QAnon flag on the wall is a bit inconspicuous, not to mention a competition disrespect on this beautiful flag, no matter what their political convictions are. biscuits for the biscuits and gravy were pretty hard. my wife ordered a waffle and all the others were made with their food before it came and the fruits with which it came were old and shaken. server were at least nice and attentive.
