This popular Longview restaurant offers a variety of dishes, but opinions on the food quality and atmosphere vary widely. While some patrons rave about mouthwatering BBQ, particularly the ribs and brisket, others express disappointment over small portions and greasy meat. Side dishes, such as coleslaw and mac and cheese, often miss the mark, leaving diners unsatisfied. The ambiance can feel dark and unclean, detracting from the dining experience. Overall, this spot shows potential but needs to refine its offerings and maintain consistency.
