The restaurant from Washington offers 16 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average $10.8. What User likes about Sbarro:

Just had the best pizza ever from Sbarro. Austin, the fine young man who made the pizza and served us, was amazing. You have such a great asset in having that young man behind the counter. We will be back! read more.

What User doesn't like about Sbarro:

4.2 10 The pizza was good, but bland, had two different types of pfefferoni on it. the crust was the freshest tasting I had in one. the soße is definitiw san marzano tomaten, slightly seasoned and the cheese was there, but it was lacking taste. it says new york pizza, but seems softer and somewhat thicker than an N.Y pee. definitiw not di faras pizza! at 18 this is also on the pricier side of the market. whatever they cut it, it is a decent pizza and will return. Delicious pizza is baked hot from the oven at Sbarro in Washington using a traditional method.
