What User likes about Le Col Rouge: the place. everything was made perfect. the koleslawin is in fact legendary as advertised. potato salad was served hot, but also on a hot day still delicious. the hen was baked and with extreme carefree fritted and even a fried pomme in the teig. good selection of the beer on the hen also. I would be a bit cautious if I were to arrange a little higher than "medium-seven", this point is not to play with the heat. chee... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Le Col Rouge: no taste, coleslaw was dry..not "world famous". mac n cheese was gritty and tasted as if it came out of a box. drilling from a dose came safe! the chicken has been underscored and the broth slip off after the first bite. will I have come back? No! read more. If you're craving for some tasty South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: tasty dishes, prepared with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you can try scrumptious American meals like Burger or Barbecue. Even if you're only a bit hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack.
