this place is a true diamond in the rough, even though it still seems to be a piece of coal. it is in the round a dive with great. I'm here twice in two years and both males eating and the service were impeccable. today, December 31, 2011, I needed a place to wake up while my friend fell asleep. our continental breakfast was only opened 8 so I pulled out the iphone. it was 6 o'clock. I found this place and there was.... read more. As a customer, you can Wonderful neighborhood bakery with home-made goodies and small town hospitality. The BLT sandwich on a brioche bun was delicious. Finished with a chocolate chip walnut cookie. No cookie should be allowed to taste this good! Chewy with a generous amount of chocolate. I will be returning to this place. They also have outside seating and dog treats for my best friend.
