What User likes about German Cafe: I am an employee in the kitchen and I first see the amount of time and effort the owners put into their food. You're working hard, great bosses. The food is made fresh and is high quality. They are proud of their food production and work very hard to ensure that every meal is served according to their description. I only worked here a few months, but I can say that I never had a job where the owners are so involved i... read more.
