The restaurant from Port St Lucie offers 16 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $6.8. What User likes about The Vine Barley:

Large selection of beer and wine. Very nice setup. You have a collection of games that you can play while you drink. The missing star is, I wish there were more choices of food. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about The Vine Barley:

Large selection of wines to taste with self-serving donors. The beer selection is much more limited, so this place is more about the vine than barley. Earlier reviews suggested that there would be an interesting selection of beer, but that was not our experience. Despite the wide selection of wine, many cheap bottles were found in the grocery store for much less. They pay for a card and can then themselves serve a sm... read more. The Vine Barley from Port St Lucie is a suitable bar to a drink after work, and sit with friends or alone. Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
