I've seen this place for years, but never before. I did not try much here, but the tri-tip sandwiches, fries, and chili beans that I got for the price was great, friendly service, and eating comes fast, good to work. They also have a good choice of eating bbq to choose from read more. What Lue Murazik doesn't like about Barbecue Land: The prices don't match the quality or portions. The hamburger was dry, and the tri-tip sandwich was pretty small compared to other restaurants in the area. The tri-tip itself wasn't prepared very well, it was tough, not tender at all. The beans were ok though. The coleslaw made this southern-born man just plain sad. read more. If you're hungry, some spicy South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: delicious dishes, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu. The fine sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. Not to forget are the traditional Korean meals like Kimchi, Bibimbap, and also Jjigae, which have a fixed place on the menu card and also on the plates of the guests, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
