The restaurant interior is simply incredible and the entrance through the hotel lobby. The food was also quite good and the customer service was amazing. The price was also very decent for such a high-end restaurant. My favourite dinner was the soup read more. What User doesn't like about Ellyngton's:

My friend and I ate in early on a weekday morning (6:45 on a Thursday). Pastries are quite excellent, and the service is impeccable. The decor was once vibrant, but is now both drab and dated, with a hint of must that you'd expect from a venerable player such of Ellyngton's. It was a courageous decision to include blue cheese in their biscuits and gravy offering, a choice which I could not come to abide by. Enjoy the... read more.
