There is a way to leave unlimited number of stars. These were probably the best five guys I've ever been... and there are people in this world who still care... I came out because I placed an order online and order was never delivered via third parties. Ms. Amy immediately came to me and offered me and my friend a free meal on my previous order. Then the Lord I believe gave me a manager a voucher from my next order.... read more. What

User doesn't like about Five Guys:

From VA moved and was a loyal customer until my last visit, every employee who came into contact with the register and touched cash not even on the 1 hour visit changes their gloves after handling money. Directly flew into the food area and touches everything! I stood in there watching her think maybe she forgot, no, the next one did the same. It is almost as if they protect themselves from touching everything instead... read more.
