The restaurant from Portland offers 16 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $2.8. What Becky B likes about Living Room Coffeehouse:

Great experience. Good coffee. I absolutely love that this place is spacious and you don't feel like you're sitting on top of the other people in the building. Was easy to get work done here. Even the tables were spacious! Would be cool to see them add a couple more sandwich options (also- an option for a sandwich without being a meal! . But no stars being deducted for that- this is a coffeehouse and it is well done! read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its customers, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Noemi Rosas doesn't like about Living Room Coffeehouse:

My opinion is about the lady on the front, not friendly at all , I ordered , wait for my food so, long then I asked how much longer so, she obviously forgot, but not even and apologized or something. At that point she was rude to me. A business can have a nicely looking and the food taste good, but if you staff is rude is not nicely any more. read more. At Living Room Coffeehouse from Portland, there are scrumptious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as cold and hot beverages, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant.
