The restaurant from Boston offers 16 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average $6.4. What Richard A doesn't like about Clover Food Lab:

Been eating at clover since it was a food truck. Now leaving a bad review because the place is getting stingy to the point of nonsense. For example, a Mediterranean bowl which costs (with a drink) $17.50 but which doesn't come with a pita. Lame. Even more lame is the staff member who refused to give me one when I asked. Bad management, lousy customer retention if managment is reading I predict a downward spiral unles... read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Clover Food Lab, The light and healthy meals in the list of specialties also rate among the favorite dishes of the customers. Most menus are prepared in a short time for you and served, Moreover, there are easy to digest Mediterranean courses available.
