ate here last night while we waited for us to be stuck on the road in the T-mobile. can't beat the price. it was okay, not the best, but it was job. our waitress was very sweet and attentive. read more. What User doesn't like about Leo's Pizza Italiano:

I saw reviews and was excited. Actual visit was pretty bad. Waited about 5 minutes for food when I got there which I didn't mind. Only reason I mentioned was because by the time I got home my pizza was cold. (I live 12 minutes away) was disappointed with the pepperoni cheese bread. The tiny salad my wife had gotten something way other than ranch. Nothing we ordered looked anything like what I had seen in the past. read more. At Leo's Pizza Italiano in Jacksonville, tasty pizza is baked fresh using a time-honored method.
