This was an excellent choice for dinner and drinks for an out-of-towner. The cocktails are made right and with precision you will not get from large mass production bars. The Ceviche recommended by Janeli, our waitress, was excellent and some of the best I had. The Roman ramen was well rounded. The swirl with thicker noodles was appreciated and the pig bell was very satisfying. Janeli is a real waitress that makes co... read more. What User doesn't like about Tulia 5th Ave.:

Our meal was delicious!! Everyone loved what they shoes our waitress, Lisa, kindly guided us through the menu. We're we're catching up with old friends we felt no pressure to rush through our time together. The service was excellent the evening very pleasant. The beet salad, lobster ravioli braised chop were ALL EXCELLENT! We also loved the the complimentary bread spread! Yum! read more.
