I am new in the area and decided to do this place based on Google reviews. I had a date with my wife. It felt like we were in a city in a beautiful cafe. It is beautifully decorated. The food is pretty good. I think everything's expensive, but I assume it was about what you'd expect. The service was great. It was a pleasant surprise. I'll be back. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, and there is no-charge WiFi. What Jesse B doesn't like about Graffiti Corner:

We arrived about 2:45 on a Saturday afternoon, checked out the daily specials board and started looking at the menu. We told the guy behind the counter this was our first time so we'd need a few minutes to decide. A young lady came in from the kitchen area and said we close the kitchen at 2pm. This place has good reviews but no one mentioned closing the kitchen early. read more.
