Went through the drive through for lunch and ordered the new Deluxe Bacon and Cheese Stackburger and an order of onion rings. Wait at the window was quite lengthy. However, it may have been due to food being made fresh. Burgers had two different cheeses, three beef patties, and were far larger than expected! Beef had a nice char but, were just a bit dry. Still far better than I expected. Onion ring order only had five... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Dairy Queen Grill Chill:

this was our way to dq, but the last 4-5 times we have commanded were wrong. we have just gone, and we were the only people in the drive through, it took 15 minutes to get our food and our order was wrong. To understand that the condition of the world is now crazy and try to give them the advantage of the doubt, but even the workers were rather rude, not even a word when they put out our food after we sit there for 1...
