Went on a busy Sunday afternoon. There was a drive-thru line around the building, and there were only 2 employees working. But my order was correct, quick, and delivered with a smile! read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Taco Bell:

I just came home after I wait 45 minutes in the car-dru-lane; I am not exaggerated. was only five in the line. the system is broken as kiosk orders take within priority over the drive thru customers. propulsion thru is also incapable, as there is a single track without extensibility, as there are curls on both sides. I got bark in my burrito instead of chickens as I had ordered. this place also often leads from usual... read more.
