The maître d was neither warm nor friendly, as we inquired about our telephone reservations and she responded she hadn't checked the messages. I wasn't sure if that meant that morning, or ever. Walking us by many open tables in the brightly lit lobby and foyer, she relegated us back into some passageway. But after this unpleasant reception, everything else here was spot on. Our waitress Sarah soon make us forget about... read more. What

Mackenzie Jones doesn't like about 100 Acres: The Kitchens At Henry:

Kevin was our waiter, barely came to ask us for anything, tons of waiting to order, then a lot of snide and rude remarks. For 30-50 a plate and $400 on a drink tab between 4 people, wouldn't recommend to anyone, lots of places to try with way better services read more.
