The place from McAllen offers 16 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $7.9. What User likes about The Flying Walrus: this bar was different from all bars located on the city. I went on a Saturday night and when they first go in them, they won't get with blasphemy or a young group of 21 years trying to get crazy on recording. it was really nice. if they want to listen to music, they can go to the back outside, which has live music and a two-storey sitting area. the music played a lot of guitar heroes hits. definitiw a 90s to 2010 ro... What User doesn't like about The Flying Walrus: I 've been coming to this place for years and I 've always had a great time. However on Saturday the 16th, the singer of their cover band, Fernie, made some very ableist remarks on stage. He said he didn 't have downs syndrome and then carried on to make hurr durr noises into the mic for like 5 minutes. I 'd like to think these views do not reflect on the bar, but given that he felt comfortable enough to behave that... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful menus, but also a large and comprehensive assortment of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Of course, there's also crisply crunchy pizza, baked straight from the oven according to traditional recipes, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the visitors also love.
