What User likes about La Costa Mariscos At Riverwalk: had a delicious dinner. michelada was the star. I had a twosome combo, huh crispy taco, cheese enchilada, rice and bean. my mother had the fried mojarra with all the rice. the fish was extra crispy and my mother said she would order it again. dinner was a success. great place to eat delicious Mexican food. there can be a waiting time, but the hostess do a good work to move them along. that will be worth it! I was there yesterday, seating and service was fast, the server were nice and paid attention. The food was disappointing, the shrimp burrito was stuffed but complete tasteless, the salsa was watery and tasteless as well. The Fajita was OK but we missed the typical ingredients. For the price which is kind of high compared to the other places in town we expected much more. Overall I say this place is below average but... read more. For visitors of the restaurant, the catering service is also available, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. Even the versatile, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests.
