One word: cheesecake! Not that the cheesecake is the only reason to go to country-aire, but it is definitely a big reason! I never had a bad meal here. Breakfast time is the usual time I was able to partake. If you need to start somewhere on the menu, then their cookies and Gravy are wonderful! read more. What Sharon McCarragher doesn't like about Country Aire:

Two of us ordered breakfast. One of us enjoyed it. My husband's cheese and green pepper omelette was very much to his liking, as was the crisp bacon and tasty coffee. Mine, on the other hand, was disappointing: Greek omelette was greasy with no discernable tomatoes; the biscuit was soft, dry, and flavorless; and when I asked for honey instead of jam I was not informed that there would be an extra $2.49 charge for 1/3...
