my family and I had a great experience at this place to eat. it was very busy on a Friday night, but wait was totally worth it. the fajitas were amazing and they have the best mais tortillas I've ever tasted. our waitress abigail was great! I was as impressed as pleasant and attentive she was for such a busy night. we will definitely come back!

totally disappointed by food quality and service. my best friend marty was a 20 year loyal customer to the place.

he and his wife invited us. beautiful place, very busy. unfortunately our fajita was burned. we have said to our waitress that we put a cot under the flesh so that the meat is won? when the food came, it was like the photo. if we ask our server to take it back, one of the managers came by, told us it is n... read more.
