we stopped here by chance on the way to albuquerque. we have the navajo tacos and the homemade fools with red chili sauce. both were fantastic and authentic. the staff was friendly and the bathroom was super clean. (only for the payment of customers) I recommend this place! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about David's:

Food was great, don't see a problem with the price. Staff is unfriendly, didn't give us our check when we asked for it and had us get up to pay, I realized after paying I didn't even see the check totalling, but none the less prices were inline with what I was charged. Seems like a members only place, really good food. Just need better employee training on hospitality, even after the blah service we left her a $9 tip... read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: exquisite meals, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you will find genuine Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. There are also tasty American meals, for example, burgers and grilled meat, Particularly, many customers are looking forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine.
